- 6) If the committee fails to convene a special general meeting to be held within 1 month after the date on which a requisition of members for the meeting is lodged with the secretary, any one or more of the members who made the requisition may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than 3 months after that date.
- 7) A special general meeting convened by a member or members as referred to in subclause (4) shall be convened as nearly as is practicable in the same manner as an annual general meeting convened by the committee.
- 8) For the purposes of subclause (3):
 - a. A requisition may be in electronic form.
 - b. A signature may be transmitted, and a requisition may be lodged, by electronic means.

5.2 Meeting protocol

5.2.1 Notice

- 1) Except if the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a resolution of the association, the secretary shall, at least 14 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, give a notice to each member specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.
- 2) If the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a resolution of the association, the secretary shall, at least 21 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, cause notice to be given to each member specifying, in addition to the matter required under subclause (1), the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.
- 3) A member desiring to bring any business before a general meeting may give notice in writing of that business to the secretary who shall include that business in the next notice calling a general meeting given after receipt of the notice from the member.

5.2.2 Quorum for general meetings

- 1) No item of business is to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under this constitution to vote is present during the time the meeting is considering that item.
- 2) Five members present (being members entitled under this constitution to vote at a general meeting) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.
- 3) If within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:
 - a. If convened on the requisition of members—is to be dissolved.
 - b. In any other case—is to stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and (unless another place is specified at the time of the adjournment by the person presiding at the meeting or communicated by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place.

- 4) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the members present (being at least 3) are to constitute a quorum.

5.2.3 Presiding member

- 1) The president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president, is to preside as chairperson at each general meeting of the association.
- 2) If the president and the vice-president are absent or unwilling to act, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.

5.2.4 Use of technology

- 1) A general meeting may be held at 2 or more venues using any technology approved by the committee that gives each of the committee's members a reasonable opportunity to participate.
- 2) A member who participates in a general meeting using that technology is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.
- 3) Prior to a meeting which will potentially use electronic voting, the secretary shall ensure that only eligible members have access to the ballot.

5.2.5 Adjournment

- 1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- 2) If a general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the secretary shall give written or oral notice of the adjourned meeting to each eligible member as defined herein for each type of meeting, of the association stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- 3) Except as provided in subclauses (1) and (2), notice of an adjournment of a general meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting is not required to be given.

5.2.6 Special resolutions

- 1) A special resolution may only be passed by the association in accordance with section 39 of the Act.
- 2) This shall require that notice of the terms of the resolution and a statement to the effect that the resolution is intended to be passed as a special resolution is issued in accordance with 5.2.1 (2) to each member.
- 3) A special resolution shall require 75% majority of eligible votes cast to accept the resolution.

5.2.7 Motions

- 1) A motion may be proposed by an ordinary member. The motion shall be seconded by another ordinary member before it takes effect.
- 2) A motion may only be altered by an amendment which has been seconded. A vote shall determine if the amendment alters the motion prior to the motion being voted on.

- 3) The presiding chairman shall not be entitled to move or second a motion, but does have right to participate in discussions and voting.

5.2.8 Voting

- 1) On any motion arising at a general meeting of the association a member has one vote only.
- 2) In the case of an equality of votes on a question at a general meeting, the chairperson of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.
- 3) A member is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the association unless all money due and payable by the member to the association has been paid.
- 4) A member is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the association if the member is under 18 years of age.
- 5) A question arising at a general meeting of the association is to be determined by:
 - a. A show of hands or, if the meeting is one to which a special resolution applies, any appropriate corresponding method that the committee may determine.
 - b. If 5 or more members present at the meeting decide that the question should be determined by a ballot — an electronic or written ballot.
- 6) If the question is to be determined by a show of hands, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, or an entry to that effect in the minute book of the association, is evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.
- 7) Subclause (2) applies to a method determined by the committee under subclause (5) (a) in the same way as it applies to a show of hands.
- 8) If the question is to be determined by a ballot, the ballot is to be conducted in accordance with the directions of the chairperson.

5.2.8.1 Proxy votes

- 1) Subject to subclause (2), an ordinary member may appoint an individual who is an ordinary member as his or her proxy to vote and speak on his or her behalf at a general meeting.
- 2) An ordinary member may be appointed the proxy, for not more than 5 other members.
- 3) The appointment of a proxy shall be in writing and signed by the member making the appointment.
- 4) The member appointing the proxy may give specific directions as to how the proxy is to vote on his or her behalf.
- 5) If no instructions are given to the proxy, the proxy may vote on behalf of the member in any matter as the proxy sees fit.
- 6) If the committee has approved a form for the appointment of a proxy, the member may use that form or any other form;
 - a. That clearly identifies the person appointed as the member's proxy.
 - b. That has been signed by the member.
- 7) Notice of a general meeting given to an ordinary member under clause 5.2.1 shall;
 - a. State that the member may appoint an individual who is an ordinary member as a proxy for the meeting.

- b. Include a copy of any form that the committee has approved for the appointment of a proxy.
- 8) A form appointing a proxy shall be given to the secretary before the commencement of the general meeting for which the proxy is appointed.
- 9) A form appointing a proxy sent by post or electronically is of no effect unless it is received by the Club not later than 48 hours before the commencement of the meeting.
- 10) Members holding proxy votes shall be identified at a meeting prior to any voting taking place.

5.2.8.2 Postal or electronic ballots

- 1) Voting shall be conducted in compliance with schedule 3 of the Regulations
- 2) The association may hold a postal or an electronic ballot (as the committee determines) to determine any issue or proposal.
- 3) The secretary shall distribute a statement fully describing the details of the ballot and the closing date and time. An electronic email address with restricted access shall be set up by the ballot officer, specifically to receive votes. Postal votes may be to the associations official address and identified as ballot paper; or to an address specifically set up to receive votes.
- 4) Votes shall not be counted until the closing date and time has passed. Votes shall be counted by an appointed ballot officer who is NOT a committee member.
- 5) The ballot officer shall ensure that all votes are by eligible members and that each member has only made a single vote.
- 6) Proxy votes shall not be valid where postal ballots are conducted.
- 7) Where a member is unable to participate in an electronic ballot or to register proxy votes they may contact the secretary to have the vote recorded.
- 8) Hard copies of votes and electronic media shall be retained for a period of not less than 8 weeks.

5.2.8.3 Electronic voting / Polling

- 1) A designated voting website or social media page with access restricted to eligible members shall be utilised to conduct voting or to poll preferences.
- 2) Voting protocols shall ensure that each member is only able to cast a single vote.
- 3) Votes already cast shall not be visible until after a vote is cast.
- 4) The committee shall determine when this type of voting may be utilised.
